TEDDY BEAR COIN (TBC) OPERATES WITHIN A CAREFULLY STRUCTURED TOKENOMICS FRAMEWORK TO ENSURE THE SUSTAINED GROWTH, DEVELOPMENT, AND VIBRANCY OF ITS ECOSYSTEM. WITH A TOTAL TOKEN SUPPLY OF 100,000,000 $TBC, THE DISTRIBUTION OF TOKENS IS METICULOUSLY PLANNED TO FULFILL VARIOUS STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES AND SUPPORT KEY COMPONENTS OF THE TEDDY BEAR ECOSYSTEM.

1. MARKETING AND LIQUIDITY (25% - 25,000,000 $TBC):

- The Marketing and Liquidity allocation of $TBC, comprising 25% of the total supply, is dedicated to promoting and raising awareness about the Teddy Bear ecosystem. These funds are utilized for strategic marketing campaigns, partnerships, and initiatives aimed at expanding the community, enhancing brand visibility, and driving adoption of TBC across diverse platforms and audiences. And providing liquidity to the pool.

2. PRESALE (20% - 20,000,000 $TBC):

- The PreSale allocation of $TBC, constituting 20% of the total supply, is earmarked for facilitating the initial distribution of tokens to early supporters and investors. This phase enables individuals to acquire $TBC at preferential rates before its public listing, thereby incentivizing early participation and fostering a robust foundation of stakeholders vested in the success of the project.

3. GAMERS (15% - 15,000,000 TBC):

- The Gamers allocation of $TBC, comprising 15% of the total supply, is designated to incentivize and reward participants within the Teddy Bear gaming ecosystem.
- These tokens are utilized to provide rewards, prizes, and incentives to gamers engaging in various activities, competitions, and challenges within the gaming platform, thereby fostering engagement and loyalty among the gaming community.

4. STAKING (15% - 15,000,000 TBC):

- The Staking allocation of TBC, representing 15% of the total supply, is allocated for the implementation of a staking program within the Teddy Bear ecosystem. Participants can stake their $TBC tokens to secure the network, earn staking rewards, and actively contribute to the governance and decentralization of the platform, thereby enhancing its security, stability, and resilience.

5. TEAM POOL (10% - 10,000,000 TBC):

- The Team Pool allocation of TBC, comprising 10% of the total supply, is reserved to incentivize and reward the core development team, advisors, and contributors driving the growth and innovation of the Teddy Bear ecosystem. These tokens serve as a means of acknowledging the dedication, expertise, and efforts of the team members instrumental in realizing the project's vision and objectives.

6. AIRDROP (10% - 10,000,000 $TBC):

- The Airdrop allocation of $TBC, constituting 10% of the total supply, is allocated for conducting targeted airdrop campaigns to distribute tokens to existing and prospective community members. Airdrops serve as a mechanism to introduce new users to the Teddy Bear ecosystem, foster community engagement, and incentivize participation in various ecosystem activities.

7. BURNING (5% - 5,000,000 $TBC):

- The Burning allocation of $TBC, representing 5% of the total supply, is dedicated to periodic token burns aimed at reducing the circulating supply of $TBC tokens over time. By systematically removing tokens from circulation, burning mechanisms help maintain scarcity, mitigate inflationary pressures, and potentially increase the value of TBC for holders over the long term.

- Through this comprehensive allocation strategy, Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) endeavors to create a robust and sustainable ecosystem that incentivizes participation, fosters growth, and delivers value to stakeholders across diverse facets of the crypto community. Each allocation is meticulously designed to support the overarching vision of Teddy Bear and contribute to the realization of its mission to spread joy, laughter, and innovation through the power of cryptocurrency.

Through the seamless integration of NFTs into the Teddy Bear ecosystem, TBC pioneers a new paradigm of interactive and rewarding gameplay, where creativity, collaboration, and fun converge in perfect harmony.

STAKING PROGRAM:

- The Staking Program within the Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) ecosystem stands as a cornerstone of community engagement, network security, and value accrual for token holders. Designed to incentivize active participation and long-term commitment, the staking program offers a myriad of benefits and opportunities for $TBC holders. Here's an overview of the staking program and its significance within the Teddy Bear ecosystem:

- Enhanced Network Security:

- The staking program plays a pivotal role in fortifying the security and integrity of the Teddy Bear Coin. By incentivizing token holders to stake their $TBC holdings, the network leverages their collective stake to validate transactions, secure consensus, and safeguard against malicious activities such as double-spending and network attacks.

Decentralized Governance:

- Staking empowers $TBC holders with the opportunity to actively participate in the governance and decision-making processes of the Teddy Bear ecosystem. Through staking, holders acquire voting power proportional to their staked $TBC, enabling them to influence protocol upgrades, governance proposals, and strategic initiatives that shape the future direction of the project.

Staking Rewards:

- Participants in the staking program are rewarded with $TBC tokens for their contributions to securing the network and supporting its operations. Staking rewards are distributed periodically based on the amount of $TBC staked and the duration of the stake, thereby incentivizing long-term engagement and commitment among stakers.

Passive Income Generation:

- Staking presents an attractive avenue for $TBC holders to generate passive income by simply holding and staking their tokens. As stakers contribute to the network's security and consensus process, they earn rewards in the form of additional $TBC tokens, effectively growing their holdings over time without the need for active trading or investment.

Stability and Liquidity:

The staking program enhances the stability and liquidity of the $TBC token by incentivizing holders to lock up their tokens for staking purposes. This reduction in circulating supply helps mitigate sell pressure, stabilize token prices, and foster a more liquid and resilient market for $TBC trading and transactions.

Community Engagement:

Staking fosters a sense of community engagement and camaraderie among $TBC holders, as participants collectively contribute to the growth and sustainability of the ecosystem. Stakers are vested stakeholders in the success of the project, and their active involvement in the staking program strengthens the bonds of the Teddy Bear community.

In conclusion, the staking program in Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) represents a symbiotic relationship between token holders, the network, and the broader ecosystem. By incentivizing participation, rewarding contributions, and fostering community engagement, staking serves as a cornerstone of decentralization, security, and prosperity within the Teddy Bear universe.

Play-to-Earn Game:

The play-to-earn game within the Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) ecosystem offers an exciting opportunity for participants to earn $TBC tokens while engaging in thrilling gameplay experiences. With the integration of various NFT skins, players can enhance their in-game performance and gain a competitive edge over their opponents. Here's how the play-to-earn game works and how NFT skins contribute to winning:

Earning TBC Tokens

Players partake in various in-game activities, such as battles, quests, challenges, and tournaments, where they compete against opponents or complete tasks to earn $TBC tokens as rewards. These tokens serve as the native currency of the Teddy Bear ecosystem and can be used for various purposes within the game or traded on external platforms.

- Strategic Advantage with NFT Skins:

- NFT skins serve as customizable assets that players can equip to enhance their characters' appearance and abilities within the game. Each NFT skin comes with unique attributes, bonuses, or power-ups that confer strategic advantages during gameplay. For example, a rare or legendary NFT skin may provide increased attack power, defense capabilities, or special abilities that can turn the tide of battle in the player's favor.

- Winning Against Opponents:

- By strategically selecting and equipping NFT skins, players can optimize their characters' performance and increase their chances of winning against opponents in battles or challenges. The combination of skillful gameplay and strategic use of NFT skins allows players to outmaneuver, outwit, and overcome their adversaries, earning victory and lucrative rewards in the process.

- Collecting and Trading NFT Skins:

- In addition to enhancing gameplay, NFT skins hold intrinsic value as digital collectibles within the Teddy Bear ecosystem. Players can collect, trade, and showcase their NFT skins, adding a layer of excitement and collectibility to the gaming experience. Rare and sought-after NFT skins may command high value in secondary markets, providing players with additional avenues for earning $TBC tokens.

- Community Engagement and Competition:

- The integration of NFT skins into the play-to-earn game fosters a vibrant community of players who are passionate about gaming, NFTs, and cryptocurrency. Players collaborate, compete, and engage in friendly rivalry as they strive to collect rare NFT skins, climb leaderboards, and earn rewards. This sense of camaraderie and competition adds depth and longevity to the gaming experience, keeping players engaged and invested in the Teddy Bear ecosystem.

- In essence, the play-to-earn game of Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) offers a dynamic and rewarding gaming experience where players can earn $TBC tokens by leveraging strategic gameplay and NFT skins. By combining fun, competition, and earning potential, the game serves as a cornerstone of engagement and value creation within the Teddy Bear community.

AIRDROPS :

- Distributing the airdrop tokens in the Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) ecosystem. By targeting early supporters, fostering community engagement, and rewarding both $TBC and NFT holders, the airdrop program incentivizes participation, loyalty, and investment in the project. Here's how the airdrop distribution strategy benefits each segment of the community:

Early Supporters:

- Airdropping tokens to early supporters recognizes their contributions and commitment to the project's growth and development. These individuals may have participated in the project's inception, provided feedback, or supported promotional efforts, making them instrumental in building the foundation of the Teddy Bear ecosystem.

- Community Engagement:

- Airdrops serve as an effective tool for fostering community engagement and incentivizing active participation among community members. By rewarding engagement activities such as social media interactions, forum contributions, and event participation, the airdrop program encourages community members to become more involved and invested in the success of the project.

- $TBC Holders:

- Airdropping tokens to $TBC holders reinforces their commitment to the project and incentivizes long-term investment in the token. As holders of the native currency of the Teddy Bear ecosystem, $TBC holders play a crucial role in supporting the token's liquidity, stability, and value proposition, making them deserving recipients of airdrop rewards.

- NFT Holders:

- Airdropping tokens to NFT holders acknowledges their role in enriching the Teddy Bear ecosystem through the creation, ownership, and utilization of NFTs. NFT holders contribute to the vibrancy of the ecosystem by participating in the NFT marketplace, engaging in gameplay, and showcasing their collectibles, making them valuable members of the community deserving of airdrop rewards.

• Random Distribution:

- Randomly distributing airdrop tokens among $TBC and NFT holders ensures fairness and inclusivity within the airdrop program. By employing a random distribution mechanism, the airdrop program avoids favoritism or bias and provides equal opportunities for all eligible holders to receive rewards, fostering a sense of equity and transparency in the distribution process.
- In summary, the airdrop distribution strategy of Teddy Bear Coin ($TBC) reflects a commitment to rewarding and empowering various segments of the community, including early supporters, engaged community members, $TBC holders, and NFT holders. By incentivizing participation, fostering engagement, and promoting inclusivity, the airdrop program contributes to the growth, stability, and prosperity of the Teddy Bear ecosystem.
